

Applications are already open for Individuals and University Teams to select the Technology Tansfer project and apply to be the next great startup every Team who Joins will be a part of the global Pitching competition. Out of all the applications for the Global Startup Competition, the top 20 most promising startups will be announced to the public. Through competition judging of the next great Technology Transfer startups can battle their way into the Global Meetup.